

Guidelines For Official Tribal Cuisine Goa Website and YouTube Channel

- All rights reserved by TRI Goa.
- Ownership and Authorized Access: The website and YouTube channel are official digital properties of TRI Goa. Administrative access is limited to designated and authorized personnel to ensure security, consistency, and accountability.
- Content Quality and Responsibility: All content published must reflect the Institute's vision, values, and objectives. Information shared should be accurate, respectful, and suitable for a diverse public audience. Content that is misleading, offensive, politically motivated, or promotional without authorization will not be permitted.
- Review and Approval: To maintain quality and authenticity, all content must undergo an internal review before being published. Important announcements, policy updates, or video uploads require prior approval from the concerned authority.
- Institutional Identity and Branding: The official name, logo, and branding elements of TRI Goa must be used consistently across all digital platforms only after obtaining due permission. Any significant changes in design, layout, or structure should be made only after obtaining formal approval.
- Data Privacy and Compliance: Personal data of students, staff, or stakeholders must not be published without consent. All activities must comply with applicable IT, copyright, and data protection laws.
- Maintenance and Accountability: TRI Goa shall be responsible for continuous monitoring, maintenance, and updates. Any misuse or violation will invite disciplinary action as per the institute's policies.
